Stories from Around the Club

OUR EARLY LEARNING CENTER HOSTED COMMUNITY HELPERS

Officer John Turcotte (a former Club kid!) and K9 Ellie of the Nashua Police Department talked about the importance of safety and what to do in an emergency.

They even recognized our Pre-K ELC members as Junior Officers!

Retired Pararescueman Craig Fitzgerald spoke about what it means to be a veteran, different jobs in the military, and shared some of his military memorabilia.

We're so proud to have Craig as our Executive Director!

Our Club Aquatics Coordinator Cameron Sykes talked to our Pre-K members about swim safety! They swim with Cameron on a weekly basis.

Strength & Conditioning Coach Kaitlyn Gonzales, from Dynamic Strength and Conditioning, promoted healthy eating and physical fitness!

TEEN CENTER PUTS SKILLS TO THE TEST

CLUB HOSTS ESPORTS TOURNAMENT

SOUPER WEDNESDAY A SMASH WITH STAFF

Join us on May 8, 2024 as we celebrate the success of the young people we serve! Fun-filled and family-friendly, this celebration will be open to Club families and supporters!

We hosted a Super Smash Bros. Ultimate Tournament, where both Club members and not-yet-members competed for prizes! Be on the lookout for future tournaments.

Our Club staff enjoyed each other's company with homemade soups each Wednesday through January. Each week 4-5 staff members brought in a crockpot of soup for all to enjoy.
